

American Association of
Caregiving
Youth

AACY champions youth who provide care for chronically ill, injured, elderly, and/or disabled family members. We support their role as caregiver and guide their success in school and life.

AACY is a national non-profit organization based in Boca Raton, FL which uniquely provides direct support and assistance to middle and high school students who provide care for chronically ill, injured, elderly and/or disabled family members. Its Caregiving Youth Institute provides C.A.R.E. – Connection, Advocacy, Research, and Education. Notably is its Caregiving Youth Research Collaborative, national partnerships, and affiliates.

Contact Information for Organization:

Address: 6401 Congress Ave. #200 – Boca Raton, FL 33487

Phone: 561.391.7401

Email: info@aacym.org

Website: <https://aacym.org/>

Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/AACaregivingYouth>

Twitter: <https://x.com/AACYorg>

Instagram: https://www.instagram.com/aacym\_caregivingyouth/

LinkedIn: <https://www.linkedin.com/company/american-association-of-caregiving-youth>

YouTube: https://www.youtube.com/results?

search\_query=american+association+of+caregiving+youth

Resources: <https://aacym.org/what-we-do/caregiving-youth-institute/>